ABOUT THE JUDGE

Barbara McKay studied at The National Art School in Sydney from 1956-1960 and travelled in U.K. and Europe for two years. She has had 30 one person exhibitions and been included in many group shows.

In 2003 Barbara was invited to be Artist in Residence at NERAM (New England Regional Art Museum) and spent six months living and painting in the area. Finding the inspiration of the New England landscape so strong she sold her home at Erina and moved to Uralla, from where she continues to work between overseas trips.
